ORAL ORDER
(03.08.2007)

SUNIL KUMAR SINHA, J.

Heard.

This petition has been filed for correction of crime number in order dated 18.4.2007, passed in M.Cr.C.(A) No.151/2007.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in fact, a wrong crime as 38/2006 was mentioned in the application for anticipatory bail because it was mentioned like that in the impugned order and the same could not be discovered at the time of final hearing of the bail application, therefore, the bail order was passed, showing crime No.38/2006, whereas, according to learned counsel for the petitioner, the correct crime number is 38/2007. He prays for correction of the crime number, mentioned in order dated 18.4.2007.

The correction prayed is not opposed by learned counsel for the State. However, he submits that this order was in force for a period of 60 days from 18.4.2007, therefore, now it would be a futile exercise, as it is not going to give any help to the petitioner.

Be that as it may. For the time being, we are not concerned with the fate of the order, we are only concerned with the correction prayed for, and if a wrong crime number has been mentioned in the order, it must be corrected.

Accordingly, the petition is allowed.

It is directed that the crime number mentioned as 38/2006 in the 3rd line of impugned order dated 18.4.2007, shall be read as 38/2007 and to this effect, the order dated 18.4.2007 stands modified.

The petition stands finally disposed of.
